

FRIDAY | Oct 20, 2017 | Humanities 365 | 11:00A - 1:00P

Searching for Scribal Curriculum in Ancient Israel

Professor William Schniedewind will present the outlines of his research in progress—a book on Scribal Education in Ancient Israel. The research proposes that outlines of scribal curriculum in early Israel can now be reconstructed based on his interpretation of the recently fully published inscriptions from Kuntillet Ajrud and using parallels with Mesopotamian scribal curriculum and its adaptations into other Levantine scribal settings.

Lunch will be provided.