

With the Support of the Jahangir and Eleanor Amuzegar Chair in Iranian Studies

Bilingual Lecture Series on Iran

present

A Social History of Dance in Iran

Sunday, December 14, 2014

4:00 PM

121 Dodd Hall

A lecture by Mansoureh Sabetzadeh, Islamic Azad University

Lecture in Persian

Mansoureh Sabetzadeh has a Ph.D. in Persian Language and Literature from the Islamic Azad University (Research and Science branch) in Tehran, Iran. She is currently an Assistant Professor at the Islamic Azad University, South Tehran branch. Since 1993, she has served as the Director of the Center for Iranian Musicology. From 2001-2005, she taught Eastern music, and Traditional and Iranian Folk music at the Universities of Tehran, Honar, Soureh and Azad in Iran. From 1993 to 2010, Dr. Sabetzadeh pioneered the research, collection and recording of Iranian musical dance and traditional musics of Tajikistan. She authored the first Iranian Dance Encyclopedia and published books, articles, and CD's on Persian literature and folk music and dance. Dr. Sabetzadeh has taught performing and creative experience in stage dancing and music for over 30 years.

Campus map is available HERE. | Parking map is available HERE.

iranianstudies@humnet.ucla.edu | www.iranian.ucla.edu